

Hagley Hall events raise £50,000 for Christchurch appeal

PICTURES BY ANTONY THOMPSON

A weekend of events at Hagley Hall raised more than £50,000 for the victims of the Christchurch earthquakes in New Zealand.

The Lyttelton family, who have strong links with the province, organised a concert at St John's Church, followed by a gala dinner for 220 in the hall. The dinner was attended by His Excellency Derek Leask, the New Zealand High Commissioner, and many figures from the New Zealand and Worcestershire communities. On the following day there was a cricket match between Hagley Village CC and the London New Zealand CC.

Left Caroline and Kit Maunsell, Janet and Christopher Tuffley

Below Vicki and Paul Selway-Swift

Left The High Commissioner Derek Leask with Lord and Lady Cobham

Right Paul and Lilliana Williams

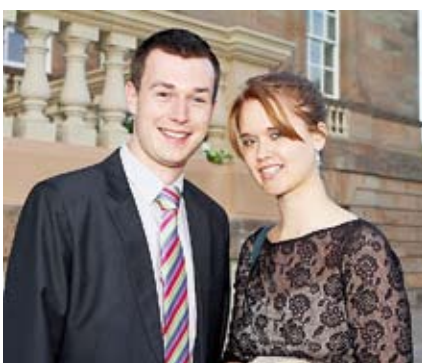

Above Richard Pugh-Cook and Gloria and Mike Cartledge

Above Avril and Rod Embley

Above Twilight aerobatics and firework display

Above Elmley De La Cour and Clare Jenkins

Above Menita and Jason Geen and Sharon Parmar

Right Tim Wilson and Heather Roberts

Right David Tikao and Tony Penman of the London New Zealand Cricket Club

Above Jeremy and Helen Sharp

TI SENTO MILANO
Into the wild collection

3 Pump Street, Worcester www.g6jewellery.co.uk

